

Alec Wilson — Web Developer

Hey! My name is Alec Wilson and I am a web developer!

About Me

I love skiing and programming, I also am a hard worker and like investing. I hate writing documentation. You can find my portfolio at alecw.net, and my GitHub account.

Education

Hehe, none yet. Only in high school.

Work

2019 - 2021 | Full-Stack Web Developer @ Siddes Media | MEEN Stack with TailwindCSS

2021 - Now | CO Founder, FS Web Dev, Electron Dev @ Cryzza | MEEN, MERN, TailwindCSS, Electron

Side Projects

BetterMacStore, quite possibly my biggest project yet, an alternative to the Apple app store that doesn't take developer fees, revenue fees, or IAP fees. Launching late 2021.

Branches, an open-source small social media for developers. Uses OAuth2 with the GitHub API

GitBin, an open-source pastebin and url shortener, also with sign in with GitHub

RndMzr, an open-source NPM library for generating random data
